

1866-003 Chancery Causes: Andrew Gott vs. Thomas Moneyhan &c
Lee Co.

McPherson

CA Debt

To The Worshipful County Court of Said County Your Orator Andrew Gott of Said County respectfully represents That on the day of 1866 in Said County one Thomas Moreyhan obtained a judgment against him for the sum of Ten dollars with interest thereon from the day of 1861 till paid & costs of suit.

This judgment was obtained on a debt contractive on the day of 1863, and therefore not collectible by execution under the laws of Virginia at this time. Nevertheless Your Orator states that he has been informed that Stokely Leeuwson a Justice of Said County has issued an execution on Said Judgment which execution or fieri facias is now in the hands of William McPherson a Constable of Said County who has levied the same on the property of Your Orator and is about to sell it to satisfy Said fieri facias unless he be inhibited by some process. Your Orator therefore prays that the Said Thomas Moreyhan and William McPherson be made defendants to this bill and answer the same in oath and that the Said McPherson Constable as aforesaid be enjoined from further proceeding until a hearing of the cause.

That if the facts herein stated are not denied the parties be enjoined from the collection of said claim during the existence of the present stay law and yet further enjoined until Vogan Andrew Gott personally appeared before the undersigned clerk of the county court of Los County and made Oath that the facts set forth in this bill are true Jan 16th 1866 against

Thomas Moryham & Wm. M. Pherson sgl } n c,

This Cause came on this day to be heard upon the bill of the plaintiffs and was argued by counsel, upon and in appearing to the court that process has been due, it came on the defendant William M. Pherson has been regularly summoned and more than two months have elapsed. The bill is taken for confessed as to him. On consideration whereof it is adjudged ordered and decreed that the said M. Pherson be enjoined from selling the property of the plaintiffs or the claim in the bill mentioned during the existence of the present stay law, and this being the object of the bill, any further action is unnecessary. And the Cause is stricken off the docket.

✕ It is therefore ordered that the plaintiffs recover against the defendant M. Pherson his costs

Chd 113

Know all men by these Presents that we Andrew Gold and George Poff of Lee County, are held and firmly bound unto, Thomas Moneyhon and William McPherson in the just and full sum of Twenty five Dollars, to the true payment whereof we bind ourselves our heirs, assigns, administrators, firmly by these Presents. Witness our hands and seals this January 16th 1866.

The Condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the said Andrew Gold has this day obtained from the County Court of Lee County and Infjunction, staying the Collection of a certain Judgment, obtained on the day of 186, before Stokely Lawson, a Justice of the Peace in and for Lee County in favor of the said Thomas Moneyhon until the further order of the Court.

Now if the said Andrew Gold shall fail or Cause to be paid, all Costs and damages, which the said Thomas Moneyhon or Wm McPherson shall sustain by reason the Infjunction aforesaid, then this obligation to be void.
